

I just want to make it known that LPFM stations should not take priority over current FM translator service. I have lived in Florida and here in California and I have enjoyed having stations that give me the option of NOT listening to local programming. I do tire of the traffic reports and so forth cutting in. I also tire of the sensationalism in the talk shows, always trying to stir up controversy. Here in San Diego, I have enjoyed K-LOVE (100.1) and have even found it to ease the traffic stress because it is so uplifting and positive. Even their PSAs are better--I volunteered at a local 3-day event that I heard about on K-LOVE, and that only 2 other people I know even heard about.

If you see a need to expand LPFM service, fine. But don't do it at the expense of any existing service, including FM translator service. Doing so would be a great DISService.
